1. BACKGROUND AND OVERVIEW OF THE PROJECT

1.1 INTRODUCTION

Alfred Nzo District is the home of two major revolutionary legends in the name of O.R. Tambo and Alfred Baphethuxolo Nzo. It is also home to our local heroes and heroines whom have played an important role in our local communities within the District be it in the aspect of development or political....to better and improve the lives of Alfred Nzo District.

The pride of any Nation lies in the degree to which it cherishes and embraces its cultural heritage. Heritage month is celebrated annually from the 1st to the 31st of October in South Africa. It recognises aspects of South African culture that are both tangible and intangible like:

- Creative expressions like music and performances
- Our historical inheritance
- Our language
- Our food
- Popular memory
- Human Treasures like our living and non-living legends

Our Human Treasures are the custodians of the cultural heritage and indigenous knowledge for the immense contribution to the arts, culture, political, academic, business and heritage sector. It was through the works of these icons that we were able to get international organisations, civil society movements and different nations to pledge solidarity and support the world-wide anti-apartheid movement.

Alfred Nzo District Municipality is made up of four local municipalities namely: Umzimvubu Local Municipality, Matatiele Local Municipality; Mbizana Local Municipality, and Nbabankulu Municipality. Within the district cultural diversity exists with population groups coming from amaXesibe, amaMpondo, amaBhaca, abeSotho, and amaHlubi.

It is against this background that the District saw it necessary to celebrate its unsung heroes and heroines that specifically come from Alfred Nzo District.

1.2 OVERALL AND SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES OF THE PROJECT

1.2.1 Over all objectives

- To educate the community of Alfred Nzo District about life of our local Heroes and Heroines;
- To raise awareness in particular within the youth of Alfred Nzo District about their local legends as they know and learn more about the national icons;
- To improve living conditions of the community Alfred Nzo District through their legacy programmes;

1.2.2 Specific objectives

- To honour and celebrate the life and times of our local Heroes and Heroines within Alfred Nzo District
- To honour their legacy;
- To document the life and contribution of our unsung Heroes / Heroines for heighten awareness on their contribution to the up-liftment of our District
